EL PASO, TEXAS: Five men were arrested and charged with two counts each of Engaging in Organized Criminal Activity for burglarizing cars on the eastside. Early Thursday morning an off-duty border patrol agent witnessed the five pulling on car doors in the neighborhood of the 12000 block of Tierra Norte. Officers responded to and detained the five men at Joe Battle and Pebble Hills where the five had been followed by the off-duty agent. During the investigation officers discovered that cars at two different locations had been burglarized. The five were charged with two counts of Engaging in Organized Criminal Activity-Burglary of Vehicle and booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility each under $10,000 bonds. Additional charges are pending.
